DAY
2

TAMBOPATA NATIONAL RESERVE - SANDOVAL LAKE

One of the most beautiful lakes in the Peruvian Amazon and the Tambopata National Reserve, Lake Sandoval is home to giant river otters, caimans, different species of monkeys, turtles, a variety of bird species and butterflies. Our visit will begin with a 3 km walk in the middle of the reserve to reach the lake. Then we will navigate slowly in a rowing boat near the vegetation of the lake trying to spot as many animals as we can surrounded by a wonderful landscape.

- Duration: half day.

Breakfast during the excursion.

FREE TIME... after the excursion and we get ready for lunch.

KAYAKING ON THE MADRE DE DIOS RIVER

Kayaking on an Amazon river is an activity that will deeply nurture your connection with the rainforest. Simply paddle downstream on the Madre de Dios River and enjoy the breathtaking sensation of paddling in the Amazon basin. As you navigate downstream, you may also see wild animals among the riparian vegetation.

After a couple of hours of fun paddling on the river, we will return upstream by boat to Hacienda Herrera.

Duration: 2 hours

JUNGLE BY NIGHT

After sunset, we will head out for an exciting night walk through the jungle on a trail that starts near the lodge; if you are lucky, you will encounter poison dart frogs, praying mantises, giant spiders and other animals with incredible and bizarre adaptations to life in the dark.
